BBC Diversity

Everyone has a Story: BBC Diversity Strategy

–5 Strategic objectives: Workforce, Access, Audiences, Authentic Portrayal, Strategy & Delivery

“Build in accessibility from the start when developing new products and services, ensuring sustainable ongoing accessibility”.

Accessibility: Organisational Imperative

Support for Disabled Employees

- BBC Ability
 - To provide a voice to disabled staff at the BBC
 - Work with Diversity Centre on workforce & portrayal
 - Meet every 6 months with Director- General
 - Attend Diversity Board at least once a year
 - Regularly organise events for disabled staff and wider staff population to raise awareness
 - Joint working with other BBC Staff Forums
- Staff Forum Video

Access Services

- Provides assistance to disabled employees, managers and visitors
- Services available to both potential and current employees
- Services include:
 - Access Assessments
 - Workplace / working practices reasonable adjustments
 - Support with funding arrangements (e.g. AtW applications)
 - Comms Support & Facilitation
 - Access assessments for BBC Events
 - Hold a small stock of equipment available for loan

But – what is reasonable?

or

Both do the same job.
Or do they?

Approaches to Reasonableness

- What is the need / substantial disadvantage?
 - Who determines the need?
 - How do you assess the level of need?
- What possible solutions are available that meet all needs?
 - Have you considered all options?
 - Have you sought expert advice?
- Which solution(s) best suit the environment context in which the employee is expected to perform as well as any other employee?
 - Have you done all that can reasonably be done?
- Financial Considerations

For Discussion

1. What are the top 3 benefits and challenges for your organisations of working with host companies with established access support processes?
2. What are the challenges for you in supporting host companies to determine which adjustments are reasonable?

Any Questions?

Thank you!
